UM HOSTS PREVIEW OF CAMPUS LIFE

MISSOULA –

High school students and their parents can get a glimpse of life and learning at The University of Montana during its annual open house to be held from 8:15 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 5.

The event, UM Days, aims to help high school juniors and seniors with their college search. Participants can learn about the University's academic programs, student life and extracurricular activities, as well as get information about financial aid and career choices.

UM Days also offers the opportunity for participants to meet in small group settings with currently enrolled students to tour the University campus and residence halls.

Interested students and parents can register for UM Days online at <http://www.umt.edu/nss/umdays> or by calling (800) 462-8636.

For more information and a brochure, e-mail Molly Molloy, UM director of orientation, at mmolloy@mso.umt.edu.
